Report

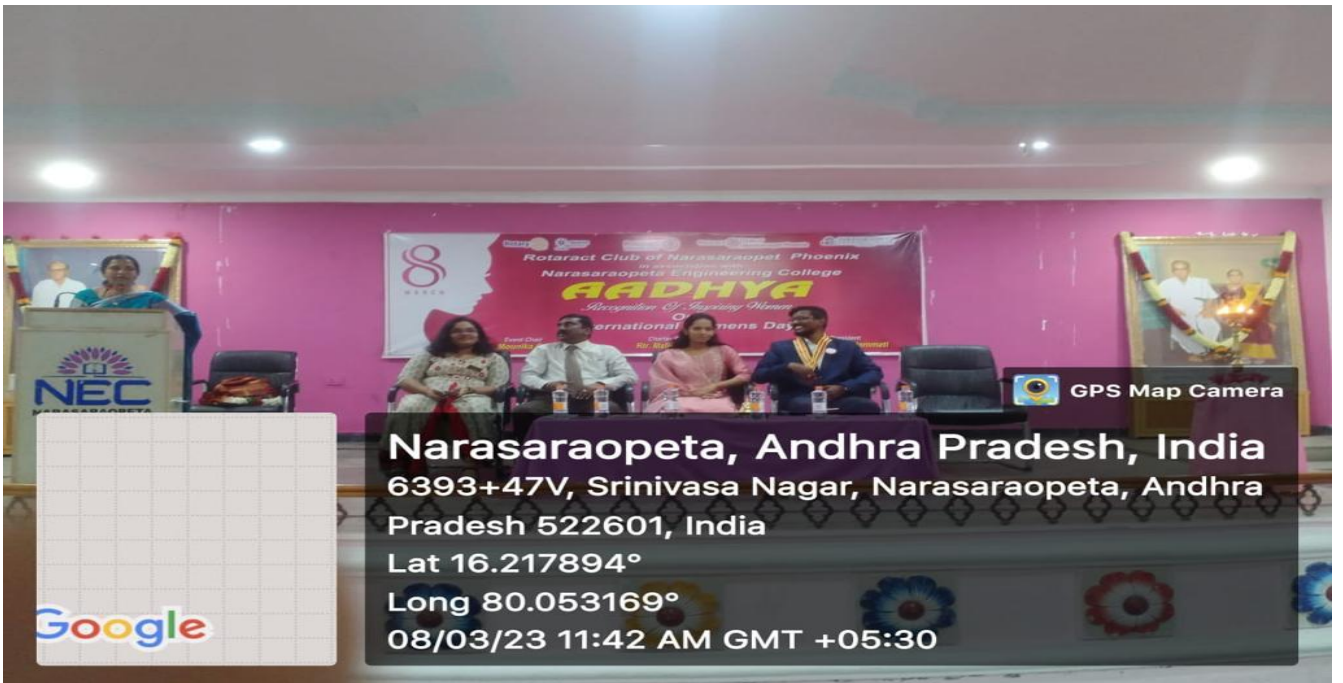

Dr. M. Sreenivasa Kumar, NEC's Principal, inspired students on International Women's Day, highlighting its significance in acknowledging women's achievements worldwide. He stressed our ongoing journey toward gender equality and praised notable Indian women, including Nirmala Sitharaman, Kiran Mazumdar-Shaw, Saina Nehwal, Mary Kom, Smriti Irani, Chanda Kochhar, Rani Rampal, and Hima Das.

Dr. K. Ponnari Lakshmi, Women Empowerment Cell Coordinator, emphasized the need for continued progress, addressing discrimination and violence against women globally. She urged women to support and empower each other through mentorship, advocacy, and listening. Dr. Lakshmi also spotlighted successful women entrepreneurs like Kiran Mazumdar-Shaw, Falguni Nayar, Vandana Luthra, Richa Kar, Radhika Ghai Aggarwal, Upasana Taku, and Ritu Kumar.

International Women's Day is a moment to recognize women's remarkable contributions to society, their role in driving social and political change, and their ability to break barriers and challenge stereotypes. The call is to renew our commitment to gender equality for a brighter, more inclusive future.

The day's events include essay writing, Mahanadi, Best from Waste, cooking without fire, poster presentations, and Best Costume competitions, with winners receiving prizes. The program concluded with felicitations for the guest of honor and a vote of thanks.
