KOHA OPAC

Online public access catalogue is a database that allows library users to search books title and author wise available in the library without the help of library staff. <http://necopac.2cqrkoha.com/>

The screenshot shows the KOHA OPAC Advanced Search page. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for Home, Cart, Lists, and Admin. The main heading is "Advanced search". Below this, there is a search form with three input fields: "Search for:", "and", and "and". The first field has a dropdown menu with "Title" selected. The second field has a dropdown menu with "Author" selected. The third field has a dropdown menu with "Subject" selected. Below the search form, there are buttons for "Search", "More options", and "New search".

Below the search form, there is a section for "Item type" with a heading "Limit to any of the following:". There are several checkboxes and icons for different item types: BTECH Books, MCA Book, Reference, Books, Maps, SC Book Bank, Computer Files, Mixed Materials, ST Book, Continuing Resources, Music, and Visual Materials.

Below the item type section, there are three more sections: "Location and availability:" with a dropdown menu for "All libraries" and a checkbox for "Only items currently available for loan or reference"; "Sort by:" with a dropdown menu for "Relevance"; and "Publication date range:" with a text input field and a note: "For example: 1980-2000, new books, older than 10 years, for everything published in and before 1987 or 2006, for everything published in 1987 and later." Below these sections, there are buttons for "Search", "More options", and "New search".
